

ID: TH107

Title: Demystifying the Six Percent Fee Limitation in Federal Government Work

Date: June 21, 2018

Time: 7:00 AM – 8 AM

LU: 1

Program Summary

- The AIA and the US Government seek to broaden access to government projects by promoting awareness to firms who may not be pursuing federal government work due to their concerns or misunderstanding of statutory six percent fee limitation.
- This presentation will clarify the application of the Brooks Act and the 6% statutory fee limitation for architecture and engineering services.

Learning Objectives

- A. Understand what the Brooks Act is
- B. Understand which professional services fall under the six percent fee limitation
- C. Understand the principals and practices for fee negotiations for A/E services covered by the Brooks Act
- D. Understand that the federal government seeks to award fair and reasonable fees, and to expand A/E participation in federal government project opportunities

Speakers:

- Robert Theel, FAIA
- Craig Kozikowski, AIA
- Mark Lewandowski, PMP
- Charles Enos, AIA

This presentation is protected by U.S. and international copyright laws. Reproduction, distribution, display, and use of the presentation without written permission of the speaker is prohibited.

This program is registered with the AIA/CES for continuing professional education. As such, it does not include content that may be deemed or construed to constitute approval, sponsorship, or endorsement by the AIA of any method, product, service, enterprise, or organization. The statements expressed by speakers, panelists, and other participants reflect their own views and do not necessarily reflect the views or positions of the American Institute of Architects or of AIA components, or those of their respective officers, directors, members, employees, or other organizations, groups, or individuals associated with them. Questions related to specific products and services may be addressed at the conclusion of this presentation.