Course / Learning Objectives

- Reflect on individual stories and recognize key skills needed in your own practice for better communication and business success.
- Gain insight into a client's mindset and frame of reference for a significant advantage in brokering solutions.
- Explore strategies needed to make the client/architect relationship work, and create a win-win situation for all.
- Define or further refine your own approach to client relationships by understanding the other's perspective.

Architect 1 Perspective:

What is Empathy?

- When did it work?
- When it doesn't work?
