Course / Learning Objectives

- Discuss the 2030 United Nations Sustainable Development Goals designed to create best practices on urban sustainability and resilience.
- Learn about the National Trust's ReUrbanism initiative and the tools available to support successful, inclusive, and resilient cities.
- Explore the Detroit Strategic Framework and the specific actions that identify and align assets with opportunity.
- Compare many of the goals and tools that support prosperous, sustainable, and healthy cities.

CITY PERSPECTIVE

Detroit: Pursuing an Equitable and Inclusive Recovery

The Detroit the World Sees

The city of Detroit has filed for Chapter 9 Bankruptcy, making it the largest-ever municipal bankruptcy in U.S. history. Once the centre of America's booming auto industry, the debt-riddled city has been in a drastic decline for 50 years.

63%
drop in population

since the auto-industry boom in 1950

1950 1.8 million

2012 701,750

Population has dropped 26%
since 2000 alone

26.7% are under 18 years old

11.5% are 65+

53.8% home ownership rate
Michigan average is 73.5%

78,000 abandoned buildings
66,000 abandoned lots

Distress in Detroit

$18,000,000,000+
in accrued obligations

100,000
creditors

Even if the city could raise taxes to pay its obligations,
its citizens would not be able to afford it.
Detroit tax rates are at their current legal limits.

A group of approximately ten workers, many wearing bright yellow high-visibility safety vests, are engaged in maintenance or cleanup work in a residential area. They are positioned around a grassy area and a paved road. Some workers are bending over, possibly collecting debris into black bags, while others stand or walk. GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE

Re-Urbanization: the 21st Century Opportunity

Cultural Heritage as an Asset for Contemporary Urban Resilience and Sustainability

CULTURAL HERITAGE IN THE GLOBAL INTERNATIONAL SUSTAINABILITY CONVERSATION

SDG #Goal 11

CITIES & HUMAN SETTLEMENTS

Make cities inclusive, safe, resilient and sustainable:

- Housing, basic services and upgrade slums
- Transport systems
- Planning and management capacity
- Cultural and natural heritage
- Disasters risk reduction
- Environmental quality
- Green and public spaces

Target 11.4 #HeritageTarget

Making cities and human settlements sustainable, resilient, safe and inclusive by...

Strengthening efforts to protect and safeguard the world's cultural and natural heritage.

NEW URBAN AGENDA

10. The New Urban Agenda as a source of culture and cultural diversity are sources of enrichment for humankind and provides an important the sustainable development human settlements, and citizens, empowering them to play an active and unique role in development initiatives; and further recognizes that culture should be taken into account in the promotion and implementation of

Portland, OR
133.5 mi² | Pop: 632,309 | 26th Most Populous U.S. City | Est. 1845

Blocks of older, smaller, mixed-age buildings play a critical role in fostering robust local economies, inclusive neighborhoods, and sustainable cities. The Preservation Green Lab report, Older, Smaller, Better, leveraged the ideas of Jane Jacobs to show why preservation and building reuse matter for successful communities. The Atlas of ReUrbanism expands this research to 50 U.S. cities, demonstrating that Character Counts.

In Portland, compared to areas with large, new structures, character-rich blocks of older, smaller, mixed-age buildings contain...

- Twice the population density
- About twice the number of jobs in small and new business
- Twice the number of women and minority-owned businesses

The building blocks for an inclusive, diverse, economically vibrant city, Portland's older, smaller buildings are irreplaceable assets. For more information about Portland's high-character areas, please see reverse.
